

GOD'S TIMING VS YOUR TIMING

GOD'S TIMING

Has a fixed set time

Draws you closer to God because you are dependent on Him

God orchestrates everything

Leads you to relinquish control of your future. giving you peace of mind

Will have no hindrances or blockage because it is divinely set

There is ease when the time is right for God to move on your behalf

Requires you to exercise your faith in God muscle

Rarely requires your skills or abilities for the promise to come to pass

YOUR TIMING

Can happen at any time

Does not necessarily draw you closer to God.

You are the one on the driving seat

You are more worried on your future because you think you control everything

Because you are limited, you will experience unforeseen roadblocks the way. also

You will experience limitations because of your limited nature

You don't have to have faith in God. You need to have more faith in yourself and abilities

Relies heavily on your skills and abilities
